

“You should be both active and contemplative, both Martha and Mary...
It is important to be before the Lord, and then to do for him; we are to be contemplatives in action.”
An excerpt from Grace in Every Season written by Catherine de Hueck Doherty

“From Encounter to Discipleship”
Rest and Renewal Weekend
At Mount Alvernia Retreat Center
July 13 – July 15, 2018

Mount Alvernia Retreat Center, Wappinger Falls, New York

The Department of Youth Faith Formation (Catechetical Office and Youth Ministry Office) invites you to enjoy a weekend of retreat with other parish directors / coordinators of the RCIA, Religious Education and Youth Ministry at a beautiful and holy place. Give yourself this special opportunity to rest and renew your faith with reflection, discussion and time for private and communal prayer.
Rediscover your call to missionary discipleship.

All guest rooms have private bathrooms. Meals are in common in the main dining hall.

Register by phone or email.
Space is limited.

Oscar.cruz@archny.org 646-794-2692

Cost: $ 250. – includes overnight accommodations and five meals

To finalize reservation / reserve your room... please send full payment or a non-refundable deposit of $50.
If you send a deposit payment of $50, you then make an additional payment of $50 each month for four months.

Check or Money Order payable to: Catechetical Office, 1011 First Avenue, New York 10022

For more information, please contact: Oscar Cruz, Archdiocesan Catechetical Office

Arrival: Friday, July 13 ... 7:00pm

Departure: Sunday, July 15 ... 1:00pm

Sponsored by the
Department of Youth Faith Formation
Catechetical Office - Office of Youth Ministry
Archdiocese of New York